FLAVA WORKSHOP #3

BLENDED LEARNING: WHERE VIRTUAL INSTRUCTION COMES FACE TO FACE WITH CLASSROOM PRACTICES TO BEST PREPARE 21ST CENTURY STUDENTS

Amplify student engagement & motivation, increase student responsibility & independence and achieve higher learning outcomes via inclusion of virtual instruction components in the everyday classroom experience. The presenter will focus on highlighting the benefits of utilizing strategies & tools from virtual instruction in the brick & mortar classroom as well as the importance of bringing the best practices from the face to face classroom into the world of virtual instruction. The best from both worlds.

Thursday, January 31, 2019
4:00 - 6:00 P.M.

Presenter: Leah Devine, West Virginia Virtual School

Language Learning Center

Department of World Languages and Cultures

THE LANGUAGE LEARNING CENTER
3061 Batten Arts and Letters
757-683-3364
https://www.odu.edu/languagelearningcenter

Betty Rose Facer, Director