Welcome from the Secretary-General

I am incredibly excited to take on the long tradition of hosting the ODU Model UN Conference. We have been working tirelessly to prepare a unique and exciting educational conference for our delegates. ODUMUNC 42 will be at the Sheraton Norfolk Waterside Hotel, Thursday February 14 to Sunday February 17.

Education is at the center of ODUMUNC 42. I am happily biased, growing up with my mother a high school educator. And if it weren’t for my high school international relations teacher, I would not be writing this letter, much less on the academic track I am on. I have always believed that the solutions to global problems ultimately require Bettering Global Education, our theme for ODUMUNC 42.

That’s why our General Assembly stresses topics revolving around education. Driving home the theme of ODUMUNC 42, the Human Rights Council returns as a forum to deliberate on equality in education. An innovation this year is the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), often the scene of bitter controversies. We also feature the African Union, a personal favorite of mine, and the World Health Organization (WHO). What would ODUMUNC be without Crisis Committees? They cover resolution of guerrilla warfare in Columbia, the breakup of Yugoslavia, and artificial intelligence and foreign policy.

Committed to our legacy of superb conferences, my staff and I know the responsibility we carry for you and our delegates. We are enthusiastic about realistic role-playing and insightful simulation, ready to share our fascination with international politics, and make your school’s experience the best ever. Join us at the Norfolk Waterside in February 2019!

Best Regards,

Brendan Wagner, Secretary-General
ODU Model United Nations Conference 42
About ODUMUNC

The Old Dominion University Model United Nations Conference is an educational simulation for high school students, where students learn about countries, issues and diplomacy through experiential learning.

Over 1,000 delegates come together for three days, striving for accurate representation of the policies of the countries and organizations they represent. In preparation for the conference, delegates research their country’s government, foreign policies, positions and interests as they relate to the topics under discussion.

At the conference, delegates promote their country’s policies under the leadership of ODUMUNC’s experienced staff, using with parliamentary rules and diplomatic practices. All in the intense atmosphere of Norfolk’s Sheraton Waterside, in view of the world’s largest naval shipyard.

Dates and Registration

Early registration (due Friday, 12 October 2018): Register early to ensure your country selections. To register early, the completed registration form and $65 registration fee are due by 15 October 2017. Pay by credit card on our website, or make checks payable to ODU Model United Nations. Both payment and registration form must be received by the deadline.

Final registration deadline (Friday, 7 December 2018): Submit the registration form online, by fax or mail, with the registration fee of $65. The registration form and initial fee of $65 are due no later than 12 December 2018. We cannot guarantee registration requests received after December 12. Registrations received after are assessed an $80 late fee. Final payment is due 11 January 2019.

Refund request deadline: Friday, 11 January 2019. See refund procedures below.

Name badge request deadline (Friday, 25 January 2019): Assure name badges are ready at conference registration by sending your final list of names—with country and committee assignments—by January 25.

Delegations: A country delegation typically includes up to twelve students, depending on whether the country is represented only in the General Assembly or also in the African Union and Security Council. There is no additional delegation fee for participants on specialized bodies and crisis simulations.

Four delegations per school: Due to space constraints, delegation assignments may be limited. Schools that wish to send additional delegations should indicate on the registration form. There is a maximum of four delegations per school, not including the specialized bodies and crisis simulations.

Country rotation: No school may represent the same country two years in a row. This assures equitable turnover, especially for high-demand countries.

Photo Release: By registering and submitting participants’ names, sponsors grant Old Dominion University and the ODU Model United Nations Society permission to use their school’s participants’ names and/or photographs in ODU publications and media both in print and electronic. Every effort will be made to secure specific permission before using photographs.

For Delegates

Training Sessions

ODUMUNC features welcome sessions on Thursday night. Led by our College Conference team, ODUMUNC 101 focuses on preparation for the General Assembly. ODUMUNC 495 covers preparation for smaller bodies and crisis committees.

Social Events

Blow off steam! ODUMUNC features the ever-popular karaoke night and delegate dance.
For Faculty Sponsors

Issue briefs: Provide background information on committees and topics. They are available on the conference website in September.

Training guide: The greatly praised ODUMUNC training manual, Winning UN Simulations, covers everything new delegates need to know as they prepare. On our website at http://www.odu.edu/content/dam/odu/offices/mun/odumunc-delegate-guide-winning-un-simulations.pdf

Support services: The ODU Model UN Society is ready to help your students prepare. Our staff can come to regional schools for classroom training, or you can have your class meet with us at ODU.

The Faculty Forum

ODUMUNC offers its unique Faculty Forum, a one-day seminar for teachers on an issue in international affairs, with maximum classroom relevance. This year’s Faculty Forum is Teaching Cyber Security: Five Take-Aways for Social Scientists. It features professors from Old Dominion and other regional universities. The series typically features six speakers in an informal seminar environment, with refreshments. Old Dominion University offers Continuing Education credit for the Faculty Forum.
Committees and Topics

Each country delegation requires a minimum of 4 delegates (for each of the four General Assembly committees) to a maximum of 19 delegates (with 2 delegates each for the four GA committees, WHO, HRC, Security Council and African Union, and one each on three crisis bodies). It is preferable that two delegates per body represent each country.

Schools are permitted an additional 5 delegates in specialized bodies: for 2018 these are the African Union and HRC with up to 2 delegates each, and the three crises bodies with 1 delegate each. The specialized bodies are on a per request basis. Participation is charged delegate fees but no additional delegation fee.

Registrations for crisis committees are yes/no. The ODUMUNC Secretary-General in consultation with faculty sponsors makes specific assignments separately.

Each school determines where its delegates can be used most effectively. To be eligible for school awards, each delegation must be represented in all its assigned committees.

For committee descriptions please see the website.

Conference newspaper: ODUMUNC will again feature the International Press Corps (IPC). They report on the committees, caucuses, success and disaster, commentary and perspectives. This year students in the IPC will be assigned positions as journalists, playing different international news agencies. This will give students participating in IPC the opportunity to write in character about events going on in the conference.

Experience in journalism or model UN simulations is not a requirement. Students interested in an IPC assignment should submit an application by 11 January 2019. There is no registration fee for IPC participants.
