

Native American Heritage Month

November 1st - November 30th

November 4th

NAHM Kickoff

12:00 p.m. — 1:00 p.m.

Mane Hub, Webb Center

Join us for a celebration to kick off Native American Heritage Month with cultural enrichment, education, and giveaways.

Dream Catcher Workshop

6:00 p.m. — 8:00 p.m.

North Cafe, Webb Center

Discover the art of dream catchers, learn the stories behind its origins, and make your own. Materials and instruction provided!

November 12th

NAHM Cafe

12:00 p.m. — 2:00 p.m.

Broderick Dining Commons

Join us to learn, win prizes & indulge in traditional Native dishes!

*Meal plan participants can simply swipe to dine in, while others may purchase a meal to join the experience.

November 19th

Red Shawl Day

12:30 p.m. — 1:30 p.m.

South Mall, Webb Center

Join us for Red Shawl Day to honor and raise awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women (MMIW). Wear red, stand in solidarity, and help spread awareness of this ongoing crisis affecting Indigenous communities.

Roc Your Mocs!

12:30 p.m. — 1:30 p.m.

North Mall, Webb Center

Celebrate Indigenous culture with Roc Your Mocs! Wear moccasins if you have them, or join us to learn about traditions. Everyone is welcome to share cultural pride and show solidarity!

November 13th

Linguistics Film Series:

"First Language: The Race to Save Cherokee"

8:00 p.m. — 9:00 p.m.

Yetiv Auditorium, Batten Arts & Letters Building

A screening of the documentary: "First Language: The Race to Save Cherokee"

Sponsor: ODU Applied Linguistics

OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY®

Office of Intercultural Relations

For more information, please contact:
Office of Intercultural Relations
1070 Webb University Center
(757) 683-4406 | oir@odu.edu