4. Approval of the Minutes

- Approved

5. Chair's Report. (Chairman Carhart)

6.

7. Action Items:

Committee A: (Senator Lobova)

- AY24-7-A Humanities and Data Science Minor
 - Approved
- AY24-8-A Music Production Minor
 - Approved

Committee I: (Senator Richman)

- AY23-45-I Eligibility of High School Students for the Tuition Assistance Program
 - Discussion centered around expanding the criteria to include more options for eligible faculty dependents
 - Friendly amendment to strike “Gifted” from the description
 - Policy approved as amended

8. Committee Reports

Committee G: (Senator Kate Hawkins)

- Discussion of Recommended Changes to the Scope of the Proposed Policy About Protecting Faculty Researchers and Scholars.
 - First part of policy will be the scope
 - The scope will reference the specific language provided by the AAUP
 - The AAUP standards allow faculty to speak as citizens in “the public sphere” either as experts in our areas or as citizens
 - The university should provide the same protections to faculty in the public sphere as it does in the professional sphere consistent with First Amendment Law
 - There is no intent to limit coverage to tenure only
 - 2014 Chicago Statement of Principles for rights in education
 - This is a dynamic statement that lends further strength to support of faculty protections
 - Add language to cover clinical practitioners
 - Revise language to consider smaller interactions with students outside of classroom or laboratory settings
 - Please reference the Faculty Handbook ethics section for more specific language

9. Adjournment

Adjournment 4:17pm
