Financial Affidavit of Support | Financial Form for F-1 & J-1 Students

Financial certification documents are required for the issuance of Certificate of Eligibility forms I-20 (F-1) or DS-2019 (J-1) for the student visa application process. This legal form, issued by Old Dominion University, serves as satisfactory proof that a student has met the requirements for university admission and the financial ability to pay for their intended program of study. Scanned documents may be accepted, however, ODU has the right to request original or additional documentation.

Acceptable Documentation of Financial Ability: Financial documentation is valid for one calendar year from the desired date of enrollment.

- Personal/Family/Friend Funding- Original, dated, bank issued statement demonstrating an equivalent numerical balance in U.S. dollars of on-demand or liquid funds equal to the total first year estimated costs. Bank statements to include summary of account, passbook or transaction activity.
- Government or Employer Sponsorship -Original letter must be addressed to Old Dominion University, and include all terms and provisions, specifying the exact amount of support, duration of funds, program of study and inclusion of any dependent or additional allowances.
- Educational Loans- Official loan guarantee verifying the terms and amount of secured funding.
- ODU Assistantships-Award letter from the graduate department indicating total funds, any tuition reduction, duration, and origin of the financial assistance.

Unacceptable Documentation of Financial Ability: Documents issued prior to one calendar year by the date of enrollment, documents including but not limited to: property, employment or pension income, investment portfolios, educational loan applications.
