

Old Dominion University College of Arts & Letters

Graduate Student Conference Participation Support Application

The College of Arts and Letters offers support to graduate students who are presenting papers or serving as commentators/discussants at academic conferences. Funds are limited and are offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Please submit this application, along with a copy of the acceptance letter or invitation to discuss/comment, to the Office of the Dean (9000 Batten Arts and Letters) at least five days prior to your proposed travel. (For international travel, please submit at least 30 days prior.) If approved, you must document your travel expenses, and provide all receipts in compliance with University regulations to avoid any delay in reimbursement. Detailed information on travel and reimbursements may be found at <https://www.odu.edu/facultystaff/university-business/travel/guidelines>. Note that memberships will not be reimbursed when these are separate items from conference registration fees. For further assistance, please contact Jennifer Ellis at jeellis@odu.edu or Deborah Giles at dgiles@odu.edu.
